

NORTH TORRANCE TATTLER

By MRS. HELENE ALLISON
MEMO 4-2430

Heaven to Howling Betsy! . . . How bad could it get? Some of the costumes seen at the Hard-times dance at McMasters Hall this Saturday evening would make a hobo look like a millionaire!

Several prizes were given; the best made costumes unanimously went to Hamilton Black, 17224 Atkinson. Mr. Black showed all what could happen if you ran out of shoe coupons! His shoes were burlap sacks, but he danced just the same!

Mrs. Rumstead, 18236 Roslin, carried off all honors for women. Her corsage was especially eye catching! Both received a pound-of-bacon wrapped in newspaper. Mr. Rumstead played some of the 200 records he brought.

The building was loaded with talent. Miss Ardella Burch, 18229 Roslin, and Barbara Manning, 18304 Roslin, sang several numbers. Paul Clayton and Dave Dyer did their rendition of "Ten-nness Waltz" which was really enjoyed by the crowd. All in all it was a pleasant evening.

Kenneth Tuttle, pastor of Community Church held at McMasters Hall, 174th and Yukon, took his class of teen-agers to Culver City roller-rink Sunday, February 11. Those who showed up for the skating were: Jimmie Babb, Jerry Allison, Ed McVey, Bob Kelly, Dan Myers and Sally Collins.

A bowling league is to be formed at Gardena Bowling Alley for teen-agers. Mr. Allison and your columnist have agreed to help organize two teams in this area to be entered within the next two months. Any boys who are interested, please call Memo 4-2430. The practice is held Friday at 7:30. Mr. Harris is hoping to get enough instructors to teach the boys the fundamentals of bowling. However, to join a team your average is not expected to be high. Regardless of what you know about bowling, you are welcome.

At the PTA meeting, February 14, of North Torrance Elementary School Mrs. Harry Van Bellehen, parliamentarian, was given the honorary life membership in honor of Founders Day. Mrs. Van Bellehen has been very active in PTA work for several years and is held in high esteem among the PTA members. The tribute was justly bestowed. Congratulations!

The Community Methodist Church held at Higgins Brickyard Patio under the sponsorship of Rev. C. E. Miller and the Torrance Methodist Church is beginning to grow. Some 30 children and adults are enrolled. Mr. Greiss, of 2510 Knode, is the adult teacher; others are Mrs. West, 174th and Casimir; Mrs. Cole, 3rd grade teacher of North Torrance Elementary School. All are welcome. At the present only Sunday School is being held at 9:30 a.m. The women's circle elected as president Mrs. West (at whose home the next meeting will be held, Wednesday, February 28), secretary Mrs. Reithner, 2619 West 176th street, treasurer; Mrs. Brewer, 2612 West 178th street. Meetings are held the 2nd and 4th Wednesday of the month. To date eight ladies have joined.

Don't forget the Crenshaw Crest Street Light Dedication Friday, February 23, 7:30 p.m. Glenburn avenue will be roped off at 170th and 171st for the dance that follows. The platform for the speakers and public address system will be at 171st. Many officials will be on hand. This is the termination of a 10-month project carried on by the residents. Mike Hardin served as chairman. Ed Collins is the Master of Ceremonies of the evening. Refreshments will be served.

A very nice gesture on the part of Charles Severin, owner of the Sudo-matic help-yourself laundry at Crenshaw and 174th. News of the building fund drive of Community Church being housed temporarily at McMasters Hall is getting around. Thanks for a welcome donation.

Jimmie Babb and Melvin Ballanger accompanied a group of Torrance Auxiliary Police to the mountains this week-end.

Mrs. Betty O'Brian, teacher at Perry School underwent surgery and will be unable to teach for six weeks. She is the recipient of the life membership award given by the Perry PTA at their Founder's Day meeting.

Mrs. Juanita Fritsche, 18544 Regina Street, has moved to Gardena and is missed by all her friends.

Reflections

By J. Hugh Sherley, Jr.

George Washington Thought Straight

Washington was a gentleman, a planter. He made success of his plantation because he thought straight, was industrious and demanded others to be. He entered Town meetings not for personal political power but to add his mite on the side of right. He listened. He weighed arguments. Thought. Gave his opinion in clear, concise words, always constructively, with the least and greatest in equal balance.

When war seemed inevitable, young George offered his services. He had never sought eminence and didn't then. He had never been a soldier, knew little of the art of war and when he was chosen General, he said, "There are better men." He was told, "Men trust you; they will follow you." General George Washington led his men, suffered with them, shared his food and money with them. He was one of them. They fought as a team and won.

As President he held aloft all the bitter experiences of that campaign. He saw his cold and hungry soldiers, his depleted fortunes, formulated laws that welded them into a successful Nation. His wisdom, his integrity, is our tradition. Guard it well. Honor him today.
